

THE TIMES.

PUBLISHED SATURDAYS.

J. E. BURGER, JR., Editor.

30 cents per annum.

SPOUTSPRING, KY.

Saturday, Sept. 12, 1896.

Entered in the post-office at Spoutspring, Ky. as second-class mail matter.

Our motto: A home made paper.

LOCALS.

It pays to advertise.

Pay us what you us.

Hot, dry and dusty.

Subscribe for The Times.

For pure groceries, go to J. E. Burger's.

Oscar Milton has returned from a business trip to Clark county.

Eat wholesome bread made of Mansfield's best flour.

James Hamilton, of College Hill, was here several days this week on business.

Luther Hamilton has sold the Todd place, at Walters' Ferry, to Rev. A. Seay for $200.

James Petitt, formerly of this county, but now of Lexington has been in this community this week buying cattle.

G. W. Lewis and Luther Hamilton, of Wades Mill, was here yesterday.

A Nicholas county farmer has a stalk of corn with forty ears growing on it.

S. Stephens, post master at Iron Mound, was transacting business in town Tuesday.

W. F. McIntosh, of Sams, paid The Times office a very pleasant call Wednesday.

W. J. Christopher sold to Luther Hamilton twenty-two shoats that averaged 56 pounds at $3.10.

The peach crop on the mountains has exhausted, and the mountaineers are now marketing their papaw.

J. P. Wright sold to James Petitt, of Wavette county, a bunch of heifers, which averaged 795 pounds, at 2½ cents.

What has become of the pontoon bridge which was going to be build across the river at the Walters' Ferry this fall?

Eld. B. F. Wright of the Christian church, has procured license in the County Court to solemnize the rites of matrimony.

W. E. Heflin has had the lumber hauled to build him a nice residence. The house will be built just out of the town limits and work will be begun some time this fall.

E. King, Sams' post master gave us a call yesterday evening. Mr. King is very anxious to have a daily mail route established between this point and Irvine, viz. Sams.

Mrs. W. M. Lowry is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Fluty, of Estill county this week. - Mr. Richard King and John Adams, two of our hustling traders, have gone to the mountains this week. - Log Lick Cor. Winchester Democrat.

BUSINESS LOCALS.

Use Mansfield's flour.

Slippers at cost for cash
J. E. Burger, Jr.

Go to W. R. Cassidy's, Clay City, for clothing.

Country bacon for 7½ c a pound at J. E. Burger's.

For stoves, hardware and queensware, go to W. R. Cassidy's.

They all want it: THE TIMES.

The Mt. Sterling Journal has suspended publication.

Last Notice.

All old accounts owing me must be settled within the next 10 days or same will be placed in an officers hand for collection.